

Emerald Crown

by Debbie Campbell

There is an emerald crown in every treetop...

There is a shimmering pearl in every raindrop...

There is a hummingbird that glitters like a jewel in a crown...

There is a butterfly that flutters in a sapphire gown...

There is a jaguar blinking with a golden eye...

There is a crystal star twinkling in a jet black sky...

There are diamond raindrops dripping from the sky...

There is a copper coin in every tree so high...

There is a ruby frog leaping from leaf to leaf...

The amber tiger is baring its sharp teeth...
