

Look around

by Debbie Campbell

Look around, look around, Look around,

And see what we have found.

Search no more, search no more, search no more,

This is what we came here for.

For every tree, every creature that we see

Is a treasure in its own special way.

So we say, let it stay, let it stay, let it stay,

You can't take it away.

Let it stay, let it stay, let it stay.

So we say, let it stay, let it stay, let it stay,

You can't take it's home away.

It's a treasure like you and me

You can take every tree

But we wouldn't be able to breathe

Let it stay, let it stay, let it stay.
